A Verse from Vespers on Icons

"All who have passed from false doctrine to true worship, who are illumined with the light of true knowledge: let us clap our hands with the psalms, offering praise to God. Let us bow in adoration to the icon of Christ, to the icon of the most pure one, to the pictures of all the saints drawn on the walls, on tables and holy vessels! Refuting the lie of the evil-opinioned. For Basil said, the adoration of the picture is transmitted to its prototype. And we implore You, O Christ God, by the intercession of your pure mother and all the saints, grant us great mercy!"
